in the county. The town was lively assarly as 10 a.m. with country folk and visitors who had come to hear the Hon. George C. Sturgiss, Hon. U. S. G. Pitzer and Hon. A. G. Dayton. It was not known until the morning of the day announced that Dayton would be here, but he was immediately advertised, and the news flew like wild-fire.

Hon. George Sturgiss opened the meeting at 1:30 p. m. with a plain, manly and earnest address. He used the plainest of fillustrations to show why Wilson should be defeated this fall, and if any wors present who were "on the fence." Mr. Sturgiss' sound and underiable logic knocked them off on the Republican side. Hon. U. S. G. Pitzer followed Mr. Sturgiss' sound and underiable hold the hold of the health of th stained, Mr. Dayson and Pres-first words were: "God bless old Pres-top," which set the large audience fairly wild. The gentleman appeared to be greatly fatigued, and looked it, but be greatly intigued, and looked it, but nevertheless he spoke nearly an hour, each word seeming to cost him an effort, so tired was he. The building effort, so tired was he. The building fairly shook with the shouts of approbation that greeted his every sentonce. Altogether, it was one of the greatest ovations ever tendered a political nominee in this town, and is but an endorsement of the coming fact that old Preston, the bauner Republican county of West Virginia, instead of her usual 1,600 majority, will this year roll up from 1,800 to 2,000 majority.

DAYTON'S CHANCES

For Election Very Bright-How the Situa-Special Lispatch to the Intelligences

KINGWOOD, W. VA., Oct. 28 .- The political situation in Wilson's district is claimed by both parties, with the chances favoring the cause of protection, prosperity and patriotism, chamnoted by Alston Gordon Dayton. A look over the field covered by the Second congressional district reveals the strength of both candidates. A change of a little over 500 votes will defeat Wilson. This is only a house of a son. This is only a change of one vote in every hundred votes cast for him in in every hundred votes cast for him in 1892. The result hinges on a very narrow margin to begin with, but when we are told that in Hampshire county alone over 600 Democrate have denounced their own camp of "party perfidy and dishonor," and have joined the Populists, and that 400 of them are "dead set" against Wilson and cannot be "persuaded" back, and that the coal miners in Mineral, Tucker and Marion not supporting Wilson as they did in 1892, it is easy to see where Dayton's majority is to come from and where Wilson's majority of 1,000 is to go glimmering. If there is not change enough in Hampshire and with the miners a few lumbermen and wool growers will in Hampshire and with the minors a few lumbermen and wool growers will make good any figures lacking.

While Wilson is riding around over the state he misrepresents in "palaces on wheels," Dayton is touching elbows with the miner, the lumberman and the wool grower pleading the cause of protection. In other words, Dayton is making votes, while Wilson is girdling his state chasing rainbows with John T. McGraw.

HON. WARREN MILLER And Judge Schilling Address a Large

-Roane County Republicaus

TRIPLETT, ROANE COUNTY, W. VA., Oct. 25 .- Hon. Warren Miller, the next congressman from the Fourth district, addressed the Tom Reed Tariff League Club here to-day. It was the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of people ever gathered together for a like pur-pose at this place. There were many ladies in attendance.

Mr. Miller was listened to with great Mr. Miller was insteaded to with great interest as he told in a plain and torcible way the effect of a ruinous free trade party in power in this country. In conclusion Mr. Miller said: "Gentlemen, has any farmer here been benefited by the change?" Though several paragraphs were wreath, in one was

Democrats were present, no one was able to say "yes."

Honorable J. G. Schilling, of Spencer, was next introduced. In his character-ietic way he caused continuous laughter in showing up the weakness of the Democratic party in trying to make believe that an ora of prosperity is now at hand. The farmers of the county are surely giving considerable thought to the great political questions that confront them and if appearances count anything. Roane county will show a anything, Roane county will show a great Republican gain in the coming election.

At the conclusion of the speaking Capt. Newlon expying Allen Miller, a presperous farmer, in the crowd, stepped to the front of the platform and announced to that gentleman who, two years ago, he (Newlon) had beard make an offer of $5.00 per head to J. V. Bartlett for his lot of sheep, that he. Newlon, how had permission from Mr. Bartlett, since the passage of the Wilson bill, to offer a better lot of sheep for $1.50 per head. Mr. Miller replied that he did not want them at any price. not want them at any price.

WILSON IN MORGAN.

The Great Free Trader Invades a Republican Stronghold and Meets a Chilly Reception.

Epecial Dispatch to the Intelligencer. BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. VA., Oct. 28 .-On Friday evening William L. Wilson arrived in Berkeley and was not met at the train by a single Democrat, Last night he attended an ox reast at Unger's store, sixteen miles south of here, the first demonstration of the kind over given in the history of the county. This proves the great uncasiness manifested by the leaders. They must need have something to bring the people together, and it is not at all inappropriate, for it is high time the Democratis was giving s high time the Democrats were giving the people at least one taste of beef in a year, after having deprived so many of our people of the prime necessaries of life to which they had become used under thirty years of Republican pro-tection and prosperity.

Last night the day's work was con-

Last hight the day's work was con-cluded by a meeting in the court house here. J. M. Kilgore, of Virginia, was the first speaker. His main effort was the telling of a big snake story. Wm. J. Wilson followed. His speech was a mere rehearsal of what he has said in his London, Charles-Town, and, in fact, all the speeches he has been making all over the district. He has nothing new to say. The most one can make out of it is the old Bowery parrot cry, "The tariff is a tax."

It is the old Bowery parrot cry, "The tariff is a tax."

The crowd consisted of about 100 women and children, about the same number of Republicans and about seventy-five Democrats. Very little applause was given and that chiefly by three or four of the leaders. Outside the court house were about 300 Republicans yelling for Dayton, and when Wilson made his appearance after his speech there was loud cheering for Dayton which lasted until after Mr. Wilson reached the hotel. It is estimated by those who know that Wilson won at least twenty votes for the Republicans by his speech. The people of Morgan county have their eyes open this year, and instead of letting Wilson pull free wool over their eyes this time, they will roll up 500 or 600 majority for America's friend, Dayton.

DISAPPOINTED DEMOCRATS.

The Disbandment of the Wilson Hippo

Belington, W. Va., Oct. 28 .- There was a general understanding that the "Wilson hippodrome," under the management of Colonel John T. McGraw. was to show here Friday afternoon, in consequence of which the faithful to the extent of about 200 congregated to meet it, but from causes unknown it failed to appear, to the great disgust of the Democratic constituency.

the Democratic constituency.

The Democrate here are growing desperate and would welcome anything that would distract the attention of the people of this section, who are chiefly miners, lumbermen and farmers, from without most firm and farmers, from without most firm and farmers. Wilson's record in the sugar-cured Con-Wilson's record in the sugar-curved con-gress, where he said that he could not afford to represent the Second district, his mission was so large. His failing to appear was a sore disappointment to them, as they were depending upon the glitter and display with which Sir. William is conduteing his campaign to bring iam is conducting his campaign to bring the deserters back, of which there are a large number here.

It is unnecessary to say that the dif-ferent method pursued by the Demo-crats and Republicans in the campaign are so apparent that "he who runs may read." The Democrats are de-pending upon carrying this district with a whoop and hurrah' to keep the neonle from realizing the position the with a 'whoop and hurrah' to keep the poople from realizing the position the country is in. To show the desperation to which the Democrats are driven I quote an extract from Wade Hampton's speech at the Beverly barbecue, where it is understood that the crowd was made up chiefly of ex-confederates who were members of the Laurel brigade, of which William L. Wilson was also a member. The significance of the remark is apparent and needs no comments. Here are his words:

"Comrades of the Laurel brigade, I implore you not to turn down William implore you not to turn down Wilham L. Wilson, who, as a boy, was so true to the southern confederacy, and as a man to the Damocratic party for an unknown

GOV. M'CORKLE IN MERCER, He Gives William L. Wilsona Siapat Bluefield-Col. Browning Makes a Republican Speech. Special Dispatch to the Intelligences

BLUEFIELD, W. VA., Oct. 27.—Gov. MacCorkle was advertised for Bluefield Friday night and a division of time was asked by Republicans for Hon. James S. Browning, of Pocahontas, Virginia, a prominent coal operator. They spoke to an enthusiastic audience of one thousand voters. Col. Browning made an able and eloquent argument for protection to our coal interests, reading MacCorkie's speech before the ways and means committee at Washington in support of the Republican position. The governor evaded a discussion of the coal tariff, except to claim that the Democrats were opposed to free coal, the President and Mr. Wilson to the contrary notwithstanding. He advocated the income tax, yet lauded Hill, its great opponent. The rest of his speech consisted of glittering generalities. Mercer county Republicans are aroused and will rebuke the party of free coal on November 6. prominent coal operator. They spoke free coal on November 6.

M'KINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD. In 1890 William McKinley was burned in cfligy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffleld; but in 1894 William L. Wilson was wined and dioed in London because he is the author of a free trade tariff bill. These are significant facts.

Mr. Elkins at Piedmont.

PREDMONT, W. VA., Oct. 28.—Mr. Elkins addressed a large crowd at the opera house to-night. Assistant Secretary of the Navy McAdoo spoke to Democrats on the street.

DANFORD'S CAMPAIGN.

Addressing Workingmon in His District.
Speeches Saturday Night.
Special Dispatch to the intelligencer.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 28. - Hon. Lorenzo Dauford, the sturdy, eloquent and grand patriot, who is the Republicandidate for Congress in this district, closed his campaign in this county last night amid much enthusiasm. He spoke night amid much anthusiasm. He spoke to the steel workers at Mingo Junction, and those brawny men cheered his speech heartily. They want a revival of buriness as they have had enough idleness since the inception of the Democratic administration. A special train on the W. & L. E. railroad took about 500 Republicans from this city down to the steel-making town and the hall did not accommodate all who wanted to not accommodate all who wanted to hear the gallant old soldier. A Successful Contest.

CAMERON, W. VA., Oct. 28 .- Friday night there was witnessed here in the M. E, church the close of one of the most spirited, as well as perhaps the most successful, contests that ever took most successful, contests that ever took place in the state. Some three months ago it was decided that in order to raise funds to pay a debt on the new M. E. church to have a contest. Ingle Maione, one of the most popular Baltimore & Ohio men on the main line, and S. H.
